OFFICIALS CONFIRM GERMAN INTRIGUE

Evidence of Pernicious Activity of Bernstorff

MEXICAN-JAPANESE ALLIANCE AGAINST U. S. SOUGHT BY GERMANY

CAPITAL STIRRED BY ZIMMERMANN LETTER

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Full official confirmation of Germany's proposal to Mexico to form an alliance with Mexico and Japan to attack the United States was given today both at the White House and the State department.

The revelation of German Foreign Minister Zimmermann's letter to German Minister von Eckhardt at Mexico City, which was transmitted through Former German Ambasasdor von Bernstorff, urging Mexico to propose such an alliance to Japan, stirred the capital and Congress deeply.

The part taken by von Bernstorff, other than transmitting the letter for the German foreign office, has not been revealed. It is known positively that evidences of his activities were sufficient to force his departure from the United States at any time were in the hands of the government, even before it knew of his attempted intrigue with Mexico and Japan.

Secretary Lansing authorized this statement: "We do not believe that Japan has had any knowledge of this or that she considers any proposition made by her enemy. We are confident that Mexico would not be a party to any such agreement."

Lansing said that in view of the fact that the plan was not to be presented until it is "certain there will be an outbreak of war with the United States," it is not certain that the matter had been officially presented to Carranza. Lansing declined flatly to say how the information came into possession of the United States.

Copy of Brazen Proposal.

A copy of Zimmermann's instructions to von Eckhardt sent through von Bernstorff, is in possession of the United States government. It is as follows:

"Berlin, Jan. 19, 1917.—On the 1st of February we intend to begin submarine warfare unrestricted. In spite of this, it is our intention to endeavor to keep neutral the United States of America.

"If this attempt is not successful we propose an alliance on the following basis with Mexico: That we shall make war together and together make peace. We shall give general financial support and it is understood that Mexico is to reconquer the lost territory in New Mexico, Texas and Arizona. The details are left to you for settlement.

"You are instructed to inform the president of Mexico of the above in the greatest confidence as soon as it is certain that there will be an outbreak of war with the United States and suggest that the president of Mexico, on his own initiative, should communicate with Japan suggesting adherence at once to this plan; at the same time offer to mediate between Germany and Japan.

"Please call to the attention of the president of Mexico that the employment of ruthless submarine warfare now promises to compel England to make peace in a few months.

(Signed) "ZIMMERMANN."

HOUSE WILL VOTE ON AUTHORITY ACT THIS AFTERNOON

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Flood bill authorizing the president to arm and protect American ships and lives, but not giving him power to use "other instrumentalities" he asked for to meet the submarine crisis was taken up by the House on an agreement to vote at the end of three hours debate.

A NEGRO FIEND IS LYNCHED IN GEORGIA

AMERICAN STEAMER REACHES BORDEAUX

Duga is looking forward with pleasure to the arrival Saturday from Bellaire, Ohio, of Mr. Duga, who will join his wife and daughter at the Bellaire cottage on Magnolia avenue and later accompany Mrs. Duga on the return to their northern home. Miss Dora Williams is enjoying a visit from a college friend, Miss Louise Lidden, of Marianna, who came to Daytona Tuesday and will be with Miss Williams for some time at her home, the Williams hotel, on South Beach street.

MATTER REFERRED TO A COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Senator Lodge has introduced a resolution providing for the president to inform the Senate if the "Zimmermann" note is authentic.

Senator Swanson informed Lodge that Democratic senators are authorized by the president to state that the Zimmermann note revealed by the Associated Press is substantially correct.

Senator Lafollette favored an amendment to the Lodge resolution, asking the president to say when the United States government got possession of the note.

After some debate in which Senator Hardwick urged delay in consideration of the resolution because Senator Stone, chairman of the Foreign Relations committee, was not present, Stone appeared and requested that the resolution be referred to a committee without instruction as to when it should report. The Senate agreed to this unanimously.

In making the request Stone said: "It seems that the resolution ought to go to a committee. Here is a newspaper report of a document that the secretary of foreign relations for the German government sent to the German ambassador in Washington. It appears in the morning papers. We are not informed of its source. There may be information in the hands of the State department which might be incompatible with public interest to reveal."

The Senate Foreign Relations committee has ordered a favorable report on the Lodge resolution, after eliminating the provision asking the president when the Zimmermann letter came into the United States' possession. Republicans have apparently abandoned their filibuster.

MINSTREL SHOW AT ORMOND CASINO ON NEXT TUESDAY EVE

HOTEL ORMOND, Feb. 28.—Special mention must be made of the minstrel show which is to be held in the Ormond casino, Tuesday, March 6th and the proceeds from which are to be used for the Employes' Emergency Sick Fund. The talent employed is really remarkable this distance from the great cities. There is a chorus of fifty, and all the latest popular songs will be sung. The following have solo parts: John H. Gannon, musical director, formerly of the Hippodrome, New York City; James [illegible], New York City, will sing Billy Sunday songs, Misses Alice and Esther C. Bowers, Conservatory of Music, Boston, Chas. H. Pratt, clog dancer of Keith's circuit, Boston, Miss Alice Pedrick, of Philadelphia, contralto solo and twenty tamborine girls.

Bretton Woods patrons who attended a similar performance given by this same company as the Bretton Woods theatrical company last summer at the Mount Washington, Bretton Woods White Mountains, N. H., were enthusiastic in their praise of the splendid entertainment, and the patrons of Bretton Woods who are here are looking forward with much interest and anticipation to a fine performance here. The casino should be filled, and undoubtedly it will be. If it were larger an effort for special trains would be made to run between Jacksonville and St. Augustine for this performance. As it is there is a great demand for reserved seats from Daytona, New Smyrna, Wilbur-by-the-Sea and Seabreeze already.

Guests of the Ormond who are patrons and patronesses are as follows: Mesdames E. A. Brinckerhoff, W. W. Gurley, Henry C. Irons, E. P. Osborn, A. G. Pollard, W. W. Phelps, Norman B. Ream, Lenox S. Rose, C. W. Scudder, S. C. Walbridge, John Wannamaker, G. M. Whitin, J. Blake White and Messrs. W. A. Adriance, Geo. Bonbright, E. M. Cooke, F. M. Comnable, L. Corcoran, E. L. Fisher, J. R. Gladding, E. E. Olney, H. T. Richardson, J. Z. Speer, Geo. A. Taylor, D. J. Tyler, A. B. Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bloomfield, of Jackson, Mich., will spend two weeks at the Ormond.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Wilbank, of Chicago, are registered at the Ormond.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lassell, of Whitinsville, Mass., joined Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Whitin, who have been at the Ormond for a long time. Mr. and Mrs. Lassel are accompanied by Miss Lassell.

Mr. and Mrs. Loring A. Coves, of Baltimore, Md., are stopping at the Ormond.

Mrs. H. Lee Borden, of the Borden Home ranch, Tonti, Ill., Miss E. H. Hanlon, and James M. Cleveland, of Chicago, Ill., have arrived at the Ormond for a stay of a few days. Mrs. Borden is a former valued patron of the Ormond and all are very glad to welcome her back each year.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dodge, of Connecticut and Mr. and Mrs. W. Somers, of New Jersey, are registered at the Ormond.

PREFERS DAYTONA TO ANY RESORT IN THE SOUTH

"I would come to Daytona in preference to any place in the South," said Edward Burns, of Toronto, Canada, praising Daytona to a News representative yesterday. Continuing: "Last year we spent the winter in Pinehurst, N. C., and heard many people there, who had visited Daytona, say that they wished they had returned to Daytona."

According to Mr. Burns Daytona has more picturesque scenery, better waterways, and finer drives than any resort in the South, and also is accessible to more points of interest. "We enjoy driving to the nearby places," was Mr. Burns' comment, "and there are so many resorts near Daytona, if one wishes he may go to a different place every day in the week. There is a great future for Daytona," he concluded, "not only as a resort, but as a city."

LOU-TELLEGEN.

"If I continue in motion picture work much longer," smiled Lou-Tellegen, "I shall have to place a make-up table on one side of my dressing room, and an operating table on the other, because if anyone happens to get hurt in the picture, it is always I, so I might go as far as to say that the photodrama, from my standpoint, is a mixture of art and arnica.

"In this production, 'The Black Wolf,' which will be seen at the Crystal on Friday, I nearly had my nose broken. In 'The Victoria Cross' I was thrown from a horse, and in 'The Victory of Conscience' still another Paramount picture, I was hurt by an exploding bomb.

"It is strange—these things never happen when you expect them, but always come at some trivial moment and not when they should.

"I have played a number of fight scenes but never have been hurt in them, but when I turn around from a fight scene and go over to sit down in a chair, the chair will break—or a piece of scenery fall on me, or something like that.

"I am fond of the work even though I am so unfortunate from time to time, and I think the public will like 'The Black Wolf' even better than 'The Victory of Conscience.' [illegible]

WOMEN ARE WORKING DAYTONA ON AN OLD SUBSCRIPTION GAG

Daytona is being worked again. This time it is the old subscription-scholarship gag engineered by three attractive young women who approach men who are easy and women who are soft and extract one dollar by a painless process. The approach is fine. They get up close to a man, catch him by the lapel of his coat and talk faster than he can think until they get the money.

One of the girls approached a News representative as if she was an old acquaintance, leaving the impression that she was a Daytona girl. He had only been up an hour and didn't feel very well anyhow, so he didn't fall.

Instead he commenced to get information. She finally admitted that she didn't have a license to do business in Daytona and that the magazines she is supposed to be taking subscriptions for are not offering a scholarship of any kind. She added: "I am going to buy my own scholarship if I make money enough. There's no harm in that, is there?" Note the IF in her statement. Going further she was forced to admit that the magazines had not sent her out at all, but that she represented a [illegible] company at Buffalo, N. Y.

A telegram from the news company stated that they were not offering a scholarship in connection with magazine subscriptions.

The magazines answered that if anyone was stating that the magazines were giving away scholarships it was a fabrication pure and simple, and to have the solicitor pinched.

The soliciting crew consists of at least three young women and possibly others. They are working fast and have reason to believe that it is pretty soft in Daytona.

About a month ago St. Augustine sent out a general warning for the people of Florida to beware of subscription-scholarship schemes. A [illegible] of men and women worked [illegible] attempted to beat their board bill and were thrown in the [illegible], but were later released and given [illegible] to leave town.

F. W. POPE TO HAVE APARTMENTS BUILT

F. W. Pope, the well known attorney, is now having plans completed for the erection of a three-story, nine apartment house, on his property on the southeast corner of Ridgewood and Orange avenues, the building to be finished in readiness for occupancy before the opening of next winter's season.

Each of the apartments will be made of three rooms or more and bath and there will be three suites on each floor. The whole will be equipped and furnished with all modern conveniences and will constitute a model apartment house.

Attorney Pope believes with many others that the present season is demonstrating the need of such apartment houses, thus situated close to the business center of the city.

ORCHESTRA FUND IS AUGUMENTED BY $100 DONATION

Coming almost at the same time as Mrs. Burgoyne's generous gift of $500 more to the orchestra fund, F. M. Rowe was notified this morning that the German-American society fund had, at its meeting last evening, made an appropriation of $100 for the fund. This handsome gift from the German-American society is an example that might well be followed by other local organizations in order to insure the continuance of the concerts through the present month, should those subscribers to the fund who are still in arrears fail altogether to keep their promises. In addition to the German-American society's contribution there have recently been several donations of lesser amounts from individuals which are very acceptable.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON PROGRAM OF CLASSIC DANCING

Among the seventeen attractive numbers on the program of dancing to be given by Miss Post's class at the Palmetto club Friday at 3:45 p. m., will be a Garland Dance by Misses Charlotte Pence and Jean Conrad, La Ballerina, an imitation toe dance by Marion Schoberlein, an interpretation of Chopin's C minor waltz by Margaret Oliver, and Pizzicato from the Sylvia Ballet by Elaine Zeigler.

The Blue Bird, one of the most beautiful of the three Miss Lutz, of the Chalif School, New York City, will dance, is an interpretation of Chaminade's Callirhoe.

Mrs. Mark Burnham Stevens, a well known artist of Detroit, Mich., has kindly consented to render appropriate voice and piano solos for the occasion.

The seating at the Palmetto club has been arranged so that a complete view of the dancing can be had from all seats.

MRS. BURGOYNE GIVES AN ADDITIONAL $500 TO ORCHESTRA FUND

Late yesterday afternoon Mrs. Burgoyne phoned F. N. Conrad, president of the Merchants bank, and requested him to place $500 to the credit of the [illegible] fund for the payment of [illegible]'s orchestra which during the season has been delighting thousands of visitors at the daily concerts in Casino Burgoyne.

Mrs. Burgoyne stated that she had noted that quite a number of the subscribers to the fund had not yet paid the amounts subscribed by them and realizing the necessity of prompt [illegible] she made this additional donation, hoping that it would prove an incentive to all who had been remiss in paying the sums pledged by them to at once come forward with the money which will be necessary to complete the payment of the orchestra up to the first of April.

Mrs. Burgoyne headed the subscription list for the music fund with a donation of $1000, to which munificent sum she now makes an addition of $500. In view of Mrs. Burgoyne's generous [illegible] in respect to the orchestra fund, as well as other public benefits [illegible] it would seem that subscribers to the fund who have thus far neglected to pay up would do so without further delay and the payment of the balance still due on the subscription list would insure the continuance of the concerts through this month.

BRADFORD PECK SENDS FORCEFUL LETTER TO NATIONAL PRESIDENT

The following letter was sent to President Woodrow Wilson recently by Bradford Peck, president of the B. Peck company and the B. Peck Real Estate company, of Lewiston, Me., who is spending the winter in Daytona at the Morgan; and who addressed a large crowd last Sunday morning at the Community church, Daytona Beach, along the same interesting lines:

Daytona, Fla., March 1, 1917.

"Mr. Woodrow Wilson, President of Our National Affairs:

Dear Mr. President:

"The European conflagration has reached its limitations and the hold-up of the circulation of productions is only natural for war violates all law and its lesson forces financiers to realize that 'we must work together.' For the security of our incomes impells us to organize a form of service in which each and every child shall receive an income and shall be educated to become a co-partner and co-worker in the service of community of interests in which they may reside.

"Self interest and the desire to secure my family in their financial positions as well as safe-guarding those associated in the operation of our little community of interests in their financial positions, led me to study this world's problems, resulting in the formulation of a clearing house plan with the financial power for issuing low interest-bearing bonds and other forms of exchange required for transferring from ourselves as individual store keepers, landlords and other operators of industry, to ourselves as members and co-partners of the community of interests in which we may reside.

"Your trust for protecting vested property interests, 'the basis from which we receive the financial means for supporting and maintaining our homes and our social positions, demand that you keep us out of war.'

"I am an associate financial trustee.

"BRADFORD PECK."

Might Be Something in That.

SEABREEZE

G. H. Williams returned Sunday to his Miami home after a pleasant visit at the home of his father and sister, John W. Williams and Miss Sarah, on Peninsula drive.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hyatt, pleasant people of Norwalk, Conn., arrived recently to visit at the attractive home of Mrs. Gertrude Cowles on Halifax avenue and Duke street. Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt are old friends of Mrs. Cowles and are enjoying their stay here.

E. A. De Pauville and family, of Boston, Mass., who have been spending the winter in Miami, passed through Seabreeze Wednesday on their trip home after a pleasant winter. They are returning as they came in their large Cadillac touring car and are camping along the way.

Roger Gilmore, of this town, who has been working on the F. E. C. railway near Key West, is now in the employ of the Western Union company, which is stringing wire below Titusville on the East Coast. Mr. Gilmore came up recently to visit his father who is ill at the Gilmore home on Halifax avenue and left today on his return south.

Perhaps the most hard hit of Seabreeze properties during the freeze several weeks ago, was the yard of P. B. Ridgeway on Halifax avenue. Mr. Ridgeway is a connoisseur of beautiful plants and had some very beautiful specimens destroyed by the cold weather. The large bougainvillea tree, which has grown in recent years from a small shrub, was almost killed and it was necessary to cut the tree off close to the roots in order to save it.

CIRCULATING PETITION IN BEHALF OF R. D. L. GRAVES

The friends of R. D. L. Graves are circulating a petition among the property holders of Seabreeze for his reappointment to the office of Seabreeze postmaster. His many friends would like to see him hold the position for a number of years more as he wishes. During his three years of service he has given very satisfactory work to the public in spite of various handicaps in the winter season.

There are now more than 60 names on the petition and many property owners have not yet seen it.

Perfect Epicure.

DAYTONA BEACH

Charles W. Ward, of Lewiston, Me., who has been staying at a local hotel for the past two months, left this morning for Tampa, where he plans to spend the next week. He will probably return to the beach at the end of his stay.

Misses Ruth Taylor and Annie Payne, who have been spending some time at one of the Barbe cottages on Ocean avenue, left Wednesday on their return trip to their home in Connecticut. They have greatly enjoyed their stay here and may return to the beach next winter.

The many friends of John Miner, who has been very ill at his home on the corner of Silver Beach avenue and Peninsula drive, will be very pleased to know that he is now gaining in strength. For a few hours Mr. Miner's condition was so low that there was doubt about his recovery but all will be glad to know that he is on the road to recovery.

Mrs. A. S. Brooks and son, who are occupying the Wetherby cottage on Vermont avenue, Marshall park, will leave today for a visit of several weeks in Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Roberts, of Red Bank, N. J., are among those to recently arrive for a few weeks stay here. These people are pleasantly located in apartments on Seabreeze avenue and will probably stay here for the next two months. It is their first visit to the south and they are greatly pleased with the attractions of Florida which are great novelties to them. They plan to make a visit to the west coast before going north.

PRAYER MEETING IN SEVEN DIFFERENT LANGUAGES HERE

At the "Nations" prayer meeting at the Daytona Beach Methodist church Wednesday night, prayer, song, scripture reading and testimony were given in seven different languages—French, Japanese, Italian, Welsh, Scotch, German and English.

More than 200 people were in attendance at the interesting assembly in spite of the rainy night. Some people present had never attended prayer meeting before.

MR. AND MRS. EHLERS ARE MAKING EXTENDED VISIT

Edward Ehlers, of Rockaway, N. J., who with Mrs. Ehlers and little daughter, Florence Elizabeth, is making an extended stay at the Despland hotel, is a prominent man of New Jersey, where he is very well known in the political field as well as being president of the First National bank of his city. His interests are very extensive, yet he enjoys nothing more than to be able to throw off care and get into the saddle. His hobby is horses, and he has four very fine ones. He has brought them with him to Daytona, thus to enjoy the out-of-doors the more. The horses are Supreme, Flashlight, gentleman's saddle horses, and Buster and Ace, two thoroughbreds of the polo type. Supreme is his favorite, a famous champion Kentucky thoroughbred which was formerly owned by Miss Josephine Reynolds, of New York, and recently purchased by Mr. Ehlers. It has won many blue ribbons and will be shown in Brooklyn on April 18th, April 24th at Durlands in New York; June 1st at Montclair. In charge of Mr. Ehlers' string of horses is Henry Scharluk, of New York, who is a riding master of much prominence, being one of the most noted in New York. Mr. Ehlers enjoys Daytona very much and daily is seen on the avenues in and surrounding here upon the saddle accompanied by riding master, Henry Scharluk. Mrs. A. M. Moller of Montclair, N. J., sister of Mrs. Ehlers, with young son, [illegible] is with the Ehlers party and will remain until the middle of March.

BAZAAR AT CLUB A MARKED SUCCESS

Beautifully displayed hand-made articles, handkerchiefs, cake, candy and sandwiches were on sale in the tea room at the Palmetto clubhouse on Wednesday afternoon under the direction of the members of the Philanthropic department, Mrs. Henry Mitchell department president in charge, assisted by the ladies of this group.

Because of the rain not as many were in attendance at the sale but, considering the weather, fully as many were in attendance as could be expected came and bought of the articles very generously.

This afternoon, following the Music Day program the remaining articles were shown to admiring throngs who purchased them in a very short time.

The Philanthropic department is the oldest one in the club and every year has done something substantial for the worthy poor of the town. The proceeds of the sale will be used for the two colored kindergartens which are established, one at Midway and one at Waycross. The kindergartens are really day nurseries which care for the little children under five whose mothers are working during the day.

The ladies who helped to make the sale a success assisting Mrs. Mitchell were Mrs. D. Louis Perrin in charge of the handkerchief table; Mrs. J. Y. Zeigler in charge of the punch table; Mrs. W. P. Langworthy and Mrs. E. W. Green who were in charge of the cake table; Mrs. F. G. Goddard and Miss Mary K. Goodall in charge of the fancy work table; Mrs. Thos. F. Cordis and Mrs. Edward Cordis in charge of the candy table; Mrs. Robert McKay and Mrs. Harriet Longdon in charge of the surprise packages; Mrs. J. A. Rogers and Miss Lillian Thompson in charge of the refreshment table which included sandwiches, tea, coffee and cake.

The articles were very generously donated to the department by friends with the spirit of helpfulness. Very delicious looking and better tasting home-made cake sold rapidly, bringing fair price. Artistic fancy work brought forth admiration and many purchasers. Much amusement was afforded by the surprise packages which were attractively tied, and which sold almost as soon as displayed.

The ladies of the Philanthropic department have a great deal to be proud of in their efforts which proved so successful.

MOORE AND CUNNINGHAM HEARD AT SCHMIDT'S HOTEL

A. I. Moore and George Cunningham were heard in the informal concert, a weekly event at Schmidt's hotel, and created a sensation with their duet and solo numbers. Mr. Cunningham's well cultivated tenor blended well with Mr. Moore's rich baritone and the duet [illegible] an original composition of Mr. Moore's was especially notable. Among the selections were "I Love You Truly," "Bring Me [illegible]" [illegible]

WILBUR BY THE SEA

WILBUR-BY-THE-SEA, Feb. 28.—Wilbur-by-the-Sea was again the scene of a gay and festive party, which was given at the Toronita hotel, by officers of the different societies, who had sole charge of the affair. The Despland orchestra furnished the music, and during the evening there were reading and vocal selections, and the evening was noted for entertaining features which were continuous from the grand march to the last waltz. The residents of Wilbur, who occupy cottages are noted for their charming hospitality, and many entertainments are scheduled for the entire season.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Noah Slee, of New York, left Wednesday for Washington and other northern points. Mr. Slee is one of the best known men in commercial circles, being the originator of the 3-in-1 oil.

W. B. Wheeler, of Chicago, Ill., has purchased 12 ocean front lots with a frontage of 600 feet, and has had them graded and expects to eat his Christmas dinner in a beautiful new mansion on this spot, and it is rumored that some of his influential business associates will build similar residences on the adjoining lots.

Captain T. H. Crowell, accompanied by Mrs. Crowell and their daughters Grace B. and Arietta R. Crowell have returned to the Toronita hotel, after a brief visit to St. Petersburg. Captain Crowell has a pretty winer residence in the process of construction on Oriole avenue.

R. F. Olds entertained 30 of his friends at the Toronita hotel Tuesday evening by giving a dinner party. Among the group were sevral notable people and Mr. Olds proved himself to be an ideal host.

Miss Elizabeth Craig, a charming lady of Peyy, Ind., was a pleasing visitor at the Toronita hotel, Monday afternoon, and joined Mrs. Larz Anderson in the sun parlor where tea was served.

E. C. Tillinghast, of Oberlin, Ohio, is another new comer to the Wilbur fold, having purchased a lot on Ocean avenue, where he will build an attractive home. Mr. Tillinghast will return next season with his charming daughter who is a physical culture director in Philadelphia.

Auction held sway at the Clarendon Tuesday night and many bridge groups were noted in the attractive foyer. Senator Francis Hendricks and Miss Hendricks played with Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Pratt. Miss Nancy Zahner, Miss Sargent, Hugh Caperton and B. Gardner were at a second table; third group was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gifford and Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Williams. An inveterate bridge four at another table were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Johnson.

What Puzzled Him.

The musketry instructor had just been giving a lesson on the rifle to one particularly "green" set of recruits. At the end he asked:

"Now, is there any question you want to ask?"

One dull-looking "Johnny Raw" stepped forward, blushing awkwardly.

"Yes, my man?" said the instructor, encouragingly.

"Please, sir," stammered the searcher after knowledge, "be it right that the 'arder I pulls the trigger thing the farther the bullet goes?"

Mrs. [illegible] and Miss Ella Marie [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. John Hauf, attractive Miss Harriet Hauf and John Hauf, Jr., who have been guests at Schmidt's hotel for the past fortnight, left yesterday for Brooklyn, N. Y. During their stay the Haufs were popular additions to the hotel colony, and enjoyed a round of motor trips, dancing, picnics and bowling parties.

Arriving Tuesday from Palm Beach, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Burroughs, of Danville, Ill., are guests at Schmidt's hotel for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Burroughs, with her sister, visited Daytona 22 years ago, and during her stay was a guest at the same hotel. "Daytona has grown so wonderfully and become such a city, that I feel a total stranger here," Mrs. Burroughs said yesterday.

Among the most enthusiastic members of the automobile colony at the Princess Issena are Mrs. John Schenck and Miss Elizabeth Schenck, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Since the arrival of their car a fortnight ago the two have enjoyed a series of motor trips to the many points of interest around Seabreeze. Charming Miss Schenck is entering into the many diversions of the resort life with an unspoiled enthusiasm that makes her one of the most sought for members of the winter colony.

There were nine pretty prizes awarded at the Prince George card party Tuesday night. Mrs. M. E. You[illegible] won first prize at bridge, an orange [illegible]; second prize, an attractive centerpiece roll, went to Joseph [illegible], Jr.; Mrs. W. S. Rogers won second prize for the ladies, an exquisitely embroidered tray cover. Other prizes in bridge and 500 were won by Mrs. Chisholm, whose award was a cut glass smelling salts bottle; Mrs. H. O. Holbrook, who won a silver lemon fork etched in orange blossoms; Mrs. J. M. Brown, who was given an orange fork in a similar design; Miss Brown[illegible], who received a slender silver pickle fork; Miss Rothouse, a Florida water color scene, and Mr. Sterns, a deck of cards. There were nine tables of players.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gibson, of Utica, N. Y., and Mrs. J. J. Carter, prominent social leader of Boston, Mass., guests at the Clarendon, and Theodore P. [illegible], of St. Paul, Minn., a guest at the Princess Issena, were a golf foursome [illegible] College Arms links Tuesday, having driven over to DeLand in Mrs. Carter's Winton six. BALL ROOM OF HOTEL CLARENDON NIGHTLY FILLED WITH DANCERS

Although there may be a legion of diversions to separate Clarendon guests during the day, there is but one rendezvous at night, and that is the beautiful ball room of the hotel. Overlooking the sea with its draperies fluttering in the ocean breezes that make it delightfully cool no matter what the temperature, the ball room is a fairy like scene at night, brilliantly lighted and filled with dancers, for whom the hours pass all too quickly. The famous Clarendon orchestra plays the one-steps, fox trots and waltzes with a syncopated rythm that is the incarnation of the spirit of the dance. During intermissions the hotel verandas, that over-hang the beach, are popular and especially so on moonlight nights, when flooded with the light of a typically southern moon, they are places such as one may dream of—or on, as the case may be. The dancing contingent at the hotel is invariably augmented by many visitors from Daytona, and the nearby resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Tompkins, with two interesting children and maid, of Newburgh, N. Y., have joined Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer B. Fuller at the Clarendon and will remain for a stay of some length.

Completing a delightful stay in Seabreeze as guests of the Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bacon left yesterday for their home in Derby, Conn. On their initial visit to the resort the Bacons found their surroundings altogether charming and expect to return early next winter to spend the season at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Newell, of Providence, R. I., and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bancroft, of Boston, Mass., who were guests at the Clarendon last season, returned Tuesday and will remain until April. The four are receiving a warm welcome from the winter colony at the hotel.

The beautiful cup won by R. N. B. Fay in the Ormond golf tournament is attracting much attention at the Clarendon, where Mr. Fay is a season guest. Mr. Fay, playing in splendid form throughout the recent tournament, defeated W. R. Fitch, of the Ormond hotel, 4 up and 3 to play in the championship division.

Miss Florence Byars, of New York City, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Virgil Neal, of Paris, France, at the Clarendon for the past fortnight, left yesterday for home. Charming Miss Byars, who is an exceptionally graceful dancer, will be greatly missed by the hotel colony. During her stay at the hotel she was one of the most sought for members of the dancing set.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Briggs, late guests at the Clarendon, entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Morrison at dinner in the Lotus grill Tuesday night. Delicately shaded pink carnations were used for the table centerpiece.

En route down the coast Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore, of Texarkana, Ark., are guests at the Clarendon for a four or [illegible] day stay.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hanes, Jr., of Winston-Salem, N. C., are late arrivals at the Clarendon, where they expect to spend the next fortnight. En route to Seabreeze they stopped in Jacksonville for several days.

Distinguished guests noted in the Clarendon dining room Tuesday were Sir John and Lady Eaton, of Toronto, Canada, who had as their guests for luncheon Mr. and Mrs. William Dobie, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Williams and Norman [illegible] of Toronto, and Miss Dean and C. S. Thompson, of Hamilton, Ontario.

Recent arrivals at the Clarendon who have returned for a fortnight's visit are Mr. and Mrs. Julius I. Bruce, of Detroit, Mich. During the first week in March the Bruces will be joined by a party of eight or ten friends from Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Stuart left yesterday for Montreal, Canada, after spending the month of January at the Hotel Clarendon. During their stay in Florida the Stuarts spent several weeks at the Royal Poinciana, Palm Beach. They are delighted with Seabreeze and plan to spend next season at the Clarendon.

CLARENDON ARRIVALS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore, Texarkana, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Julius I. Bruce, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hanes, Jr., Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Newell, Providence, R. I.; Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bancroft, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Tompkins, two children and maid, Newburgh, N. Y.

DRAWING FOR PANAMA HATS AND OTHER THINGS ON FRIDAY NIGHTS.

ALLANDALE.

ALLANDALE, Feb. 28.—Washington's birthday was celebrated in a pleasing manner. At noon there was a picnic dinner on the [illegible] in front of the C. S. Arnold [illegible] enjoyed by 50 of the Allandale folks with friends from Port Orange. At 1:30 there was an auto parade made up of cars from Daytona, Port Orange and home folks, all decorated with flags and [illegible]. The parade was headed by the Arnold "Premier" with the sponsors of the flag raising and dedication of the library building. After passing along Ridgewood and the riverside they halted at the corner of Commonwealth and Ridgewood, where the flag pole has been raised. Alfred O. [illegible], president of the Allandale Improvement association, made a few remarks of welcome to those who had gathered about the flag pole. Rev. H. G. Fillian then offered prayer and a cornetist played "The Star Spangled Banner" and "Old Glory" was hoisted by J. W. [illegible], assisted by little Miss Alla Lewis and Capt. [illegible] of Port Orange, as everybody sang the national anthem. The flag, a very handsome one, presented by a lady of Allandale, floated out [illegible]. Capt. John [illegible] then [illegible] "America" and "[illegible]" [illegible] by the assembly. Mrs. [illegible] read an original poem written by her for the occasion, "A Tribute," which was warmly applauded as it was most timely [illegible] made the address of the day, calling on all Americans to stand by the flag and country [illegible] that all his [illegible] who are real Americans. [illegible] was sung and a poem was read by Mrs. Ada [illegible]. Then the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" was sung. Mr. Fillian closed with an address following in the footsteps of Dr. [illegible] in an appeal to Americans to stand by the flag and be true to the country, closing his remarks with Henry Van Dyke's American Flag:

"It's home again and home again,
America for me.
My heart is turning home again and there I long to be
In the land of youth and freedom beyond the ocean bars
Where the air is full of sunlight and the flag is full of stars."

be held at the Club house with Mrs. James McCreary as hostess.

The Allandale Improvement association will hold its [illegible] meeting on Monday evening, March [illegible]

A TRIBUTE

[illegible]

From the day the American flag was [illegible] by the hands of a woman—Betsy Ross—woman has upheld it with her prayers, her tears, her labors, and her sacrifice.

Joanna Livingston, wife of Lieut.-Gov. Pierre Van Cortlandt, knelt in prayer, fasting from morning to night, on the day of the battle of White Plains. History records Heaven's answer.

It is therefore fitting that the flag presented for this happy occasion by a woman of Allandale, should receive a tribute from a woman, in the name of a woman, and especially that of the splendid organization of Daughters of the American Revolution.

DROUGHT IS BROKEN BY HEAVY DOWNPOUR

The drought which had prevailed here for the past two months or longer was broken Wednesday afternoon and evening by a good, soaking rain, just such as was needed to revive vegetation injured by the low temperatures which prevailed the first week in February. A thunder shower in the afternoon, followed by another after nightfall, gave a total precipitation of .97 of an inch. This amount of rain just now is worth thousands of dollars to the truckers and fruit growers, particularly the owners of citrus groves.
